Serious Wellbeing Concerns

If you would like to report a serious wellbeing safety concern to the school, please contact the Principal or the appropriate Deputy Principal.

School Counsellors

Parents and students may wish to contact our school counsellors Mr Bryce Ray, Mr William Sands or Ms Karen Carcary.

First Point of Contact - Learning

The first point of contact for students and parents is the staff member directly supervising the matter. Classroom teachers are directly responsible for the learning of the children in their care. So, for example, if your child is having difficulty in Mathematics and you would like to speak to a staff member about this, you would contact your child's Mathematics teacher.
